

Eid Project

Projected Activity Date: 5/1/22

Date Submitted: 4/26/22

Target age/grade level: K-2, 3-5

What needs to be prepared prior to kids' arrival: Regular classroom set up	Supplies Needed: Paper, scissors, glue, tissue paper
Objective 1: Students will make art about Eid which will be happening the next day
Objective 2: Students will learn about a different religion/culture from them
Objective 3:
Social Skills Targeted (at least 1): Active-listening, turn taking, sharing
Y Value of the Month & how it aligns: Honor: Honoring other cultures and religions by learning about them
Activity Name	Details	Modification (at least 1 per activity)	Probing Questions
Hook 5 minutes	Intro into the value of honor and the holiday of Eid.	Students can help clean up	What is honor? How do we honor different people and culture?
Eid Project Solar Art Time	Students will make art inspired by the holiday of Eid which when hung on the wall will let the light catch through them.
Debrief Time	Clean up Students will show what they have made.	Students can help clean up

Extra games/activities (at least 1)	There will be no time for extra activities. If they finish early they can read a book or play a board game.
---	---	--	--

Debrief (complete after the lesson):

What worked well?	What could be improved?	What were the students' reactions?	Were the objectives met?	Supervisor's notes:
-------------------	-------------------------	------------------------------------	--------------------------	---------------------

--	--	--	--	--